Do you see the color of the earth? It has changed. And I know whose land it is. This land belongs to the brother of Zelus...Cronos.

He is the oldest brother of the three. He will be very angry when he finds out that you have killed his brothers. But they were the first to attack you and steal your gold, so we are angrier! If you're brave and think you can beat Cronos, collect all of the gold and find out what awaits you. Use the `align-content` and `justify-content` properties.
